JACK ATKIN ONCE AGAIN.

DEFEATS RESTIGOUCHE IN THE MONTAGUE STAKES AT WEIGHT-FOR-AGE.

Trance Conquers Top Note in the Rosedale Stakes Horace E. Displays Remarkable Speed in Defeating Baby Wolf.

New York, May 9.—At Jamaica today Jack Atkin easily defeated his only competitor, Restigouche, for the Montague Stakes, but the latter seems to be an ill-fated horse in races with only two starters, and the race was a repetition of the Sterling Stakes at Aqueduct, when Chapultepee's victory was made questionable by his interference with Restigouche. It is rather a singular coincident that the Montague, like the Sterling, is a weight-for-age, race, with two starters in each and the rider of Restigouche making a claim of foul in both. For six furlongs Jack Atkin and Restigouche ran like a team, when Jack Atkin began to slip away, but never gained a big lead. At the quarter post he had a length's advantage, but Restigouche seemed to be gaining when he suddenly faltered and Jack Atkin bounded away to a lead of five lengths in a jiffy, which he held to the end.

Every one believed that Restigouche had stepped in a bad spot in the course, and there was general surprise when Notter went up to claim a foul. The evidence of the patrol judge, who was very near the seene of the incident, was that Restigouche ran upon Jack Atkin and that the latter was in no way to blame. It is quite probable that Notter started to take Restigouche inside of Jack Atkin when the latter was not entirely clear. The incident spoiled a most interesting contest, as Restigouche was going well at the time and might have given the winner a close argument. Restigouche had a slight cut on one of his ankles, but Jack Atkin was unhurt. While Jack Atkin was a good favorite there was a lot of wise support for Restigouche, which was hardly justified by his public form.

Dr. E. A. Grange, who has been the veterinary of the Jockey Club for several years, has resigned to become the principal of the Ontario Veterinary College. He will be succeeded Tuesday by Dr. Saylor of Glens Falls, N. Y., who is noted for some remarkable cures of horses in recent years.

Sandal, bought by DeCourcey Forbes out of the Keene sale today, will be sent to the northern circuit with James McLaughlin's stable.

A lady was one of the bidders on Sequence at the sale today, the filly going to her bid of $150, but the buyer's name was given as Captain William Roberts, an officer of the regular army stationed at Fort Randolph, New Jersey.

Defeats All the Cracks at Oakland in a Dash of a Mile and a Sixteenth.

Mile and a Sixteenth.

Oakland, Cal., May 9.—An immense half-holiday throng which had been augmented by visitors from all parts of the country, witnesed the running of a high-class card of six races at Oakland today under perfect weather and track conditions.

The Thomas Handicap, named in honor of the new commander-in-chief of the great Atlantic battleship fleet, was the chief attraction and engaged an even dozen of the best horses in training here, including Gemmell, the acknowledged champion of the local season and such flyers as Lisaro, Critic, Cabin and Ocean Shore. For quantity and quality it probably surpassed any race that has been decided here. Every entry accepted the weight assigned and the race took on such an open character that at one stage of the betting as good as 5 to 1 could be had about any one of the preferred horses in the betting. I bespite his palpable lack of condition for the unsually long journey of one mile and a sixteenth, which he was asked to cover for the first time in his career, the homely Rubicon gelding achieved a hard earned victory by virtue of his superfor speed, winning all the way in the fast time of 1:45g.

An element of luck played a large part in the result, as several of the supposedly serious contenders, such as Cabin, Ocean Shore and Marster, were practically eliminated at the start and in one particular instance, Ocean Shore, wholly so, when he fell an instant after the rise of the barrier, this jockey, Fred Hildebrand, had a miraculous escape from serious injury, the only evidence of the very bad-looking accident being a braised hip. Rettig, who rode Gemmell to victory in masterly style, is coming to the front rapidly as a successful jockey.

Two attractive sidelights, the Sperry Handicap for sprinters and a juvenile race at a half mile, won "by Booger Red and Righteasy respectively, were also programmed. A. Walsh, the coming midget rider, scored sensationally with both. Applegate's apprentice displayed extraordinary ability on the first named, superior coolness a

METROPOLITAN HANDICAP DAY AT HAND.

METROPOLITAN HANDICAP DAY AT HAND.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week racing will begin over one of the greater tracks of New York with the running of the Metropolitan Handicap and the New York Steeplechase at Belmont Park.

The Metropolitan is a dash of one mile, with $10,000 added. It had fifty-five entries, of which seventeen—Dr. Gardner, Running Water, De Mund, The Quail, Meelick, Tony Faust, Wexford, Westbury, Minnie Adams, Oxford, Lawrence P. Daley, Don Enrique, W. H. Daniel, Cohort, Falcada, Kentucky Beau and Light Wool—have been declared. This leaves thirty-eight crack racers eligible to start, with Ballot, at 126 pounds, the top weight, closely followed by Nealon, 124; Charles Edward, 123, and Montgomery, 122. The formidable Keene Stable is represented by Ballot, 126; Superman, 119; Celt, 109, and Restigouche, 97. H. P. Whitney is represented by Brookdale Nymph, 115; Baby Wolf, 113, and Fancy, 90. S. C. Hildreth has two cracks in Montgomery, 122, and Lucle, 108. Several of the horses have incurred penalties by reason of having won since the publication of weights, April 18, Jack Atkin, Restigouche, McCarter, Old Honesty, Faust and King Cobalt all being in this category, with four pounds added to their original allotments. The probable starters will come from the Keene. Whitney, Patchogue and Hildreth, entries named and such other fast ones as Jack Atkin, 124; Dandelion, 118; McCarter, 117; Blue Book, 111; Rifteman, 107; Fair West, 106; Old Honesty, 109; Chapultepec, 103; Fainst, 102; Ben Baif, 99; King James, 98; Notasulga, 98; King Cobalt, 101; Fair Play and Johnnie Rlake, 97 each; Magazine, 96; Stargowan and Live Wire, 95 each, and Don Creole, 94. Here is certainly speed enough to evoke the most lively anticipations of a great and stirring contest. The other stake feature of the day, the New York Steeplechase, has thirty-two nominations, comprising most of the good jumpers of the time, and is over the about two miles course.

The Maiden Stakes, for two-year-olds, will be the feature of Thursday's r

Smoker appear the eligibles likely to furnish the field.

Three stake races will be decided Saturday, the Fashion Stakes for two-year-old fillies, Toboggan Handicap for three-year-olds and over and the Junior Trial Steeplechase for four-year-olds. The Fashion is a dash of four and a half furlongs. Of its seventy-six entries, eligible nave host started and none seen in public so far has shown anything striking. The Toboggan is a long-established event for the sprinters, is a dash of six furlongs with $4.000 added and among its fifty-nine rapid goers are Charles Edward, Jack Atkin, Rose-ben, Salvidere, King Cobalt, Half Sovereign, Fair Play, Magazine, Mark Antony II., Johnnie Blake, Lawrence P. Daley, Nimbus, Ben Ban, Jacobite, Berry Maid, Notasulga, Colloquy, Mollie Montrose, Restigouche, Transvaal, King James, McCarter, Spooner, Explosion, Cohort, De Mund. Far West, Bat Masterson, Baby Wolf and Red River and certain to furnish a cracking field of starters. The Junior Trial is a new event for the benefit of coming jumpers. Of its eligibles, Penarris, Economy, Percentage, Touchwood, Sir Wooster, Vervane, Sandy Creeker and Jim McGill, have shown well in cross-country racing and some of the others are expected to become star timber-toppers in fime.

Meanwhile the Jamaica meeting has two more days to run. The Williamsburgh Handicap is the stake feature for tomotrow, the probable starters appearing in the entries published today. The Suffolk Stakes for two-year-olds at 4ye furlongs will be the feature race of Tuesday.

Figures Showing the Standing of Owners, Horses and Jockeys at Its Close.

During the sixteen days of the Maryland Jockey Club's spring meeting at Pimlico, which came to a close yesterday, 108 races, nineteen of them steeple-chases, were decided, and the total distribution in stakes and purses was $56,695. This money went to 113 owners, of whom the following twenty-eight won $600 or more each:

LOUISVILLE RACING DRAWS.

SATURDAY'S CROWD A GREAT ONE DESPITE UNFAVORABLE TRACK CONDITIONS.

Polly Prim Wins the Clark Handicap from The Minks and Pinkola-Al Muller Is Beaten by Darknight,

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—For the first time since the beginning of this meeting favorable weather prevailed and it caused a large attendance. The track, however, was frightfully bad and it required the sturdlest type of thoroughbred to run in the going successfully. Under favorable conditions today's card would have been a splendid offering, containing as it did, the Clark Handicap, in which 102 horses were originally nominated. The bad going, however, precluded any possibility of a big field and little disappointment was manifest when only three starters fought it out for the $1,670 that went to the winner. J. R. Wainwright's good filly Polly Prim ran a splendid race and landed the prize after a terrific struggle in the last furlong to outstay The Minks, while Pinkola, far back, took the small portion of the purse. Polly Prim was greatly favored by good racing luck, hassmuch that Pinkola and The Minks in the early running indulged in a bumping match. With her clear sailing, Powers was enabled to keep Polly Prim in the lead for three-quarters under steadying restraint and when The Minks challenged in the stretch run, she had enough to withstand his rush. Pinkola labored in the going and showed a tendency to sulk. His performance today was not his true form.

The condensed history of the Clark Handicap since 1900 is as follows:

The third race, for sprinters at three-quarters, brought together a good band of short-distance racers' and resulted in the defent of the heavily supported Al Muller by Darknight. Al Muller might have been best today, but the inexperienced Edmiston rushed him into exhauston in the first half and he was unable to withstand the winner's challenge at the end. Colonel Bob, by showing an improved performance over his last previous effort, landed in third place.

The closing race went to Margaret Randolph, paying a long price in the straight mutuels. Ed Kane, which fluished second, ran the best race, but, under incompetent riding, he was forced to sustain defeat. The poor showing of Synchronized caused unfavorable comment, but it was unwarranted, as he is a poor sort of racer.

Tony W. showed himself to be a fair sort of colt, especially on a muddy track, by the easy manner in which he disposed of his opponents in the fifth race. Light Blue, which fluished second, ran the was subjected to much early interference. Judge Lueders, a flashy looking youngster owned by Fred Cook, and for which he paid a stiff price, made his debut in the race and showed speed, but was tiring near the end, life will show improvement and reverse this running.

That Advancing is a good filly was again demonstrated in the opening race when she nade a show of the other starters and won with ridiculous ease f

Boserrian proved a surprise when he led for the entire trip in the second race and won with plenty to spare from Floridaglen.

PIMLICO MEETING COMES TO A CLOSE.

Rio Grande Takes the Amateur Cup-Little Lighter Under Investigation-Horses Sold.

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—Dion Kerr, the Washington amateur rider, this afternoon at Pimlico showed by his performance on Rio Grande in the Amateur Cup race that he had not forgotten or lost his skill in the saddle. He was up on his own horse, Rio Grande, which he purchased from W. F. Mathews some days ago. In his last start Mr. Kerr rode an ill-judged race on Rio Grande, but this afternoon the most skillful professional could not have ridden more perfectly. He kept behind the pacemakers, Pan-de-Oro and Fancy Bird, to the stretch, and, picking the best going, easily disposed of Pande-Oro. The Amateur Cup race, which was the feature of the card at Pimlico, had only three entries, but all went to the post.

The sun shone this afternoon for the first time this week and, although there was a cold wind blowing, the day was fine for racing. Probably the largest crowd of the meeting was in attendance. Society was out in force and many persons came over from Washington, including several members of congress.

The track was heavier than it has been at any ciety was out in force and many persons came over from Washington, including several members of congress.

The track was heavier than it has been at any time since the meeting began. It was cuppy and holding, as time made shows. After the cup race the feature of the program was the Chesapeake Steeplechase and C. C. Smithson's Bound Brook, making his first appearance in nearly a year, was a strong tip and was heavily backed. He ran a good race for his first time out, but was plainly short and Moongold won, while Grandpa, ridden by Mr. Kerr, headed out Bound Brook for second place.

To dissolve a partnership several two-year-olds owned by W. Shields and P. J. Drury, were sold in the paddock this afternoon. The result of the sale follows:

M. T. Greene, to V. W. Powers, $2,100; Gerald D., to W. Shields, $3,000; Miss Ralph, to J. W. Snyder, $60; Blember, to W. Mahone, $150. Others sold were: Little Woods, to J. S. Hoy, $60; Thomas Hoy, to J. Hinds, $100; Princess Navarre, to T. Albau, $45; Belle of Phoenix, to G. Sherman, $100; Bacinette, to M. Jordan, $100; Jennie Wells, to M. Hogan, $60; Dance Ecossoin, to M. Hogan, $60; Dance Ecossoin, to M. Hogan, $60; Joshelds, to W. Ortell, $100; Bergoo, to E. Hall, $600; Edward Everett, to M. Neer, $100.

Starter Dade's assistants will leave for Toronto on Monday. A gate will be erected at Woodbine and an opportunity given the Canadian owners to school their two-year-olds to the barrier. A. H. Bradley will ship the horses he has been racing for Mrs. R. Bradley back to the farm at Charles City, Virginia. Eminola will be turned over to W. Keating, who will race her on shares through the Canadian circuit.

C. B. T., Detroit, Mich. The Pari-mutuel tickets re $5 each. The sums named include the $5 bet.

G. Z. J., Chicago. Unless there is some limit provision not stated the bet should be paid at 40 to 1.

F. G., Chicago, Ill. Daily Racing Form can be ecured at Covington or Latonia before 9 a. m. daily.

C: F. N., Cincinnati, O. Had Major Lawrence won you would have been paid. He was beaten and you lost.

G. K., Cincinnati, O. Carrying 112 pounds Light Wool ran a mile at Santa Anita Park March 10, 1908, in 1:38\(\frac{5}{6}\).

T. K., St. Louis, Mo. As it is written the bet is senseless, and the parties concerned must settle their own troubles.

Geo. D., Chicago. In exact figures there is due $8.43 from the Trance—Parkview parlay. In a dead heat the money wagered by both the backer and the bookmaker is added together and divided equally between the two.

W. E. L., Toronto, Ont. The Virginia Maid bet lost altegether, the Toboggan bet lost in part and the Lotus Eater bet won outright. The bets were separate transactions, and the Lotus Eater return certainly includes money won, although there was a net loss on the three bets. The wager as to winnings is a draw.

Winner—Br. m, by Atheling—Liffey (trained by A. G. Weston).

Went to post at 5:31. At post 2 minutes, Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Delphie moved up on the far turn on the outside, closed up on the leaders with a rush after entering the homestretch and, disposing of Tim O'Toole after a sharp struggle, had enough left to stall off Polar Star. The latter dropped back at the start, but closed up when entering the stretch, where she swerved to the outside and lost a couple of lengths, then came again when straightened out and finished wearing the winner down at every stride. Tim O'Toole showed superior speed, but tired in the last furlong. Polar Star's saddle slipped when Liebert pulled up and he fell off. The horse ran away three miles after the race.

"A POSITIVE WINNER."

Do you want possession of a method of playing the races that will make you independent? I have that method. I mean just what I say. I have successfully operated the same for three years. I know my method to be infallible. It wins continuously, and you play every race. I have solved the problem. Five years' back records will verify my claims, or money refunded. Only small capital required to earn $12 daily. A certain, perpetnal winner at any track or poolroom. This is my permanent home: I am responsible, and I guarantee my system. If you are tired of losing money, let me send you my method and put you on the road to independence. Upon receipt of New York draft or money order for $5, I will forward you my method, which will prove a revelation to you.

ADVERTISED SPECIAL LOST

PATRONS GET TUESDAY'S WIRE FREE.

CHANTILLY, my ADVERTISED SPECIAL JAMAICA last Thursday, finished 3rd, beat through bad racing luck, at odds 8-5-2-6-5.

STEEL BLUE, Advert'd Special, Lost Positively the only three wired from my office the past week.

I have word from my man at Oakland on FOUR horses that go for the money the coming week. My man informs me they are fit and ready and, barring an accident, will win at good odds.

We know the races these good things go in, and Il we want is an even break to get the money. TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and SAT-URDAY are the days, and will be the only wires sent out from my office the coming week.

Get your name on my books, as I will have OCCASIONALS from the NEW YORK TRACKS during the summer from a prominent TRAINER who is a very close friend of mine. I will not have these OCCASIONALS every day, but when I do get them, they will be the goods, and I only charge for WINNERS.

I will handle the Oakland races until the close on June 6, as I will not send anything from Louisville unless they have bookmaking there, and Latonia opens about the time they close at Oakland. I hope to have a good season at the Kentucky tracks. All business will be conducted through my office in CHICAGO during the summer.

$2.00 Guaranteed to Win $2.00 or SIX WIRES for $10.00.

If any one of these Specials loses, I will give Free the next Special until I give you a winner. Winners count-not losers.
